Thank you for supporting thousands in Metro Denver

Your generous donation helped 49 deserving nonprofit agencies receive $1.85 million in assistance.

Dear Friend,

We would like to thank you for your generous support of The Denver Post Season To Share presented by DaVita.

It is because of generous donors like you that the 2017/18 campaign raised the essential funds to support the many local nonprofit organizations whose tireless efforts help nourish those who experience hunger, protect children and families in need with medical care, prepare children and youth for success in the classroom and in life, and house families and individuals in need of a permanent home. Your donation, with a generous DaVita matching grant, made it possible for 49 local nonprofit organizations to receive $1,850,000 in grants.

On behalf of all those you have helped and the thousands more your generosity will continue to reach...thank you for your continued support. Together we make a difference!

Sincerely,

Dean Singleton

“

We are immensely grateful for The Denver Post Season to Share presented by DaVita grant as it helps us to provide high-quality care and expand our reach to serve more children regardless of their ability to pay.

– Rocky Mountain Youth Clinics

Thanks to the generous Season To Share donors, we will be able to provide 200,000 meals to children, families and seniors, as well as to increase distribution of fresh fruits and vegetables, enhancing the quality of life for thousands of Denver Metro families.

– Food Bank of the Rockies

“

Thanks to the generosity of the Season To Share donors, low-income, single-parent families receive the support they need to work toward self-sufficiency. With affordable transitional housing, quality early education and childcare, and educational and career supports, Warren Village's two generation program works with adults and children in tandem to break the cycle of poverty.

– Warren Village

We believe that all youth in the community have the right to a quality education and a connection to caring adult mentors to guide them toward success. The Denver Post Season to Share presented by DaVita makes this possible.
